School year 2018/2019

Visa Application Instructions for US Applicants

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This guide is intended as a general guide to facilitate the application for the corresponding visa in the Consulate. We strongly encourage applicants to confirm the information with their corresponding Consulate as detailed below. Information from the consular offices prevails over the one provided here, if any discrepancy between this document and the consular offices were detected.

1. General Information

Congratulations! Now that you have accepted your North American Language and Culture Assistants assignment for the 2018-2019 academic year, you are closer to Spain. We wish you a most successful experience in your school and your assignment!

The next step for you is waiting to receive your carta de nombramiento (acceptance letter) from the Regional Office of Education in Spain in the Comunidad Autónoma where the school you have been assigned to is located.

Once you have that document, you will be able to start your visa process.

Both Embassies of Spain to the U.S.A. and to Canada as well as all Consulates General of Spain know the Language and Culture Assistants Program well, and they are willing to help you to process your visa diligently and fast. It is important that you understand, though, that the visa process is a responsibility of the Consulates and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, not the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport of Spain.

Please, read this manual carefully and spend time learning about the process. Find out which Consulate you need to work with in order to process your visa and become familiar with its website and contacts there.

DO NOT PURCHASE ANY NON-REFUNDABLE PLANE TICKET or a TICKET THAT DOES NOT PERMIT CHANGES, until you have your visa with you. That will save you potential and future headaches and unexpected problems.

2. Visa Process for Language and Culture Assistants from the U.S.A.

2.1. Instructions for student visa processing

As a recipient of this scholarship, you will be in Spain under a Long-Term National type Student Visa. You will need to fill out the form for the National Visa, and follow the instructions for the National Visa – Long-Term Student Visa.

- You cannot leave for Spain before obtaining a visa.
- You will need to apply for this visa within the next few weeks, but never earlier than 90 days before the beginning of your placement.
- You cannot process the visa in Spain.

2.2. Before starting your visa application

To locate the specific Consulate General of Spain in the U.S. to apply for your visa, please click here, then click on "Embajada" (on the left-hand side) and select "Consulados" on the drop-down menu. You can also check section 6 of this document, or the links to each of the visa application instructions by consulate, available in our web page. However, we recommend the consulate webpage to ensure you are accessing up-to-date information.

<http://www.spainemb.org/>

Please look up the web page of your corresponding Consulate General to obtain information about the documents you will need. Start gathering them as soon as possible. Information may vary depending on the Consulate, and the process may take up to 4 weeks.

You may start gathering all your documents now, but you will need your carta de nombramiento to make your appointment and to process your visa.

Please, check the Consulate whose jurisdiction your residence or your school falls into. You will process your visa there.

2.2.1. Receiving the acceptance letter (carta de nombramiento)

Before applying for the Long-Term National type Student visa you need to receive an original acceptance letter (Carta de nombramiento) issued by your Regional Office of Education in Spain – Comunidad Autónoma. This letter may come to you as an email attachment, by regular mail, or both. You will need to present this original at the Consulate together with a copy. Be sure to have the original returned to you after applying for the visa. THE ORIGINAL letter will be necessary later in Spain.

Please remember that the Embassy of Spain or the Spanish Consulates are not involved in the issuance of the letter, cannot rush it, nor affect any part of the process.

2.2.2. Making your appointment

In most cases you will need to apply for the visa IN PERSON at the Consulate that has jurisdiction over your residence - normally your home residence or where your driver's license or ID was issued.

Check with your Consulate to see how to make your appointment. The appointments can be made by phone or on line, depending on the Consulate. Please, check the link that corresponds to your Consulate to see important information on your visa application. You can either click on the direct link or copy and paste the link in your web browser

2.2.3. Questions

Any questions regarding visa applications should be directed to your corresponding Consulate, not to your regional advisor.

3. Required documents

Please check with your Consulate for specific document requirements as they may vary depending on the specific consulate. Below are general guidelines.

Although these are the generally required documents, please check with your Consulate first:

- 2 recent and original passport photos on white background.
- The original acceptance letter (carta de nombramiento) from the Autonomous Community offering you a position in Spain, as well as a photocopy of this document. *This letter is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT as it contains information about your grant, the duration of your stay in Spain, the school where you will be placed with name, address, and phone number and about the insurance policy. You will need the original letter again in Spain, make sure you carry it with you.
- A money order for the visa processing fee: US$ 160 (for US citizens). Fee must be paid by money order, made payable to Consulado General de España.
- Original medical certificate and a translation of this document into Spanish (please check with the Consulate about the specific content and translation requirements of this certificate). Do not forget that this document is only valid for 3 months. You will need the original again in Spain.

Arizona does not issue this document which has to be substituted by a FBI Background Check Report.
