Note for Cultural Ambassadors: North American Language and Culture Assistants in Spain who need to apply for a visa at the Consulate of Spain in New York

Please note that for visa application purposes you apply individually, so go to this section on their instructions:

Attention: In the extremely rare case when the applicant cannot contact a representative from the university or study abroad program, he/she will be able to set an individual appointment for a long-term visa in the following link. If you cannot find availability at your convenience, please revisit the online appointment system frequently since cancellations are usual. No application will be admitted if sent through mail. In case of applying for the visa as an individual, the applicant must collect it in person in the Consulate, once the process is completed. No other person can be authorized to pick the visa up.
